HOW THE LEGISLATURE WORKS

How a Bill Becomes Law

Speaker Steve Montenegro

Senate President Warren Petersen

After Legislators submit their bills, bills do not pass go without both the Speaker of the House and Senate President allowing them to do so. Within their respective chambers, the Speaker of the House and Senate President control all of the Committee Chair assignments and control all bills getting assigned to the Committees and all bills that get assigned to the floor.

CHAPTER 38

HOUSE BILL 2481 Rep. B. Parker LD10 (R)

AN ACT

AMENDING SECTIONS 38-431, 38-431.01, 38-431.02 AND 38-431.08, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES; RELATING TO PUBLIC MEETINGS AND PROCEEDINGS.

(TEXT OF BILL BEGINS ON NEXT PAGE)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Arizona:

Section 1. Section 38-431, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to read:

38-431. Definitions

In this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Advisory committee" or "subcommittee" means any entity, however designated, that is officially established, on motion and order of a public body or by the presiding officer of the public body, and whose members have been appointed for the specific purpose of making a recommendation concerning a decision to be made or considered or a course of conduct to be taken or considered by the public body.
2. "Executive session" means a gathering of a quorum of members of a public body from which the public is excluded for one or more of the reasons prescribed in section 38-431.03. In addition to the members of the public body, officers, appointees and employees as provided in section 38-431.03 and the auditor general as provided in section 41-1279.04, only individuals whose presence is reasonably necessary in order for the public body to carry out its executive session responsibilities may attend the executive session.
3. "Legal action" means a collective decision, commitment or promise made by a public body pursuant to the constitution, the public body's charter, bylaws or specified scope of appointment and the laws of this state.
4. "Meeting":
  - (a) Means the gathering, in person or through technological devices, of a quorum of the members of a public body at which they discuss, propose or take legal action, including any deliberations by a quorum with respect to that action.
  - (b) Includes:
    - (i) A one-way electronic communication by one member of a public body that is sent to a quorum of the members of a public body and that proposes legal action.
    - (ii) An exchange of electronic communications among a quorum of the members of a public body that involves a discussion, deliberation or the taking of legal action by the public body concerning a matter likely to come before the public body for action.
5. "Political subdivision" means all political subdivisions of this state, including without limitation all counties, cities and towns, school districts and special districts.
6. "Public body" means ~~the legislature~~, all boards and commissions of this state or political subdivisions, all multimember governing bodies of departments, agencies, institutions and instrumentalities of this state or political subdivisions, including without limitation all corporations and other instrumentalities whose boards of directors are appointed or elected by this state or a political subdivision. Public body includes all quasi-judicial bodies and all standing, special or advisory committees or subcommittees of, or appointed by, the public body. Public body includes all commissions and other public entities established by the Arizona Constitution or by way of ballot initiative, including the independent redistricting commission, and this article applies except and only to the extent that specific constitutional provisions supersede this article.
7. "Quasi-judicial body" means a public body, other than a court of law, possessing the power to hold hearings on disputed matters between a private person and a public agency and to make decisions in the general manner of a court regarding such disputed claims.

Sec. 2. Section 38-431.01, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to read:

38-431.01. Meetings shall be open to the public; seating; minutes; recordings

- A. All meetings of any public body shall be public meetings and all persons so desiring shall be allowed to attend and listen to the deliberations and proceedings. ALL PUBLIC BODIES SHALL PROVIDE AN OPPORTUNITY FOR PUBLIC COMMENT IN PERSON BEFORE ANY FINAL DECISION, SUBJECT TO REASONABLE TIME, PLACE AND MANNER RESTRICTIONS. All legal action of public bodies shall occur during a public meeting.
- B. ~~Schools, school boards, executive boards and municipalities~~ ALL PUBLIC BODIES shall provide for an amount of seating sufficient to accommodate the reasonably anticipated attendance of all persons desiring to attend the deliberations and proceedings, when feasible. This ~~section~~ SUBSECTION does not require a public body to relocate a meeting outside of the largest regular meeting room.
- C. All public bodies shall provide for the taking of written minutes or a recording of all their meetings, including executive sessions. For meetings other than executive sessions, the minutes or recording shall include:
  1. The date, time and place of the meeting.
  2. The members of the public body recorded as either present or absent.
  3. A general description of the matters considered.
  4. An accurate description of all legal actions proposed, discussed or taken, including a record of how each member voted. The minutes shall also include the names of the members who propose each motion and the names of the persons, as given, who make statements or present material to the public body and a reference to the legal action about which they made statements or presented material.
- D. Minutes of executive sessions shall include items set forth in subsection C, paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of this section, an accurate description of all instructions given pursuant to section 38-431.03, subsection A, paragraphs 4, 5 and 7 and other matters as may be deemed appropriate by the public body.
- E. The minutes or a recording of a meeting shall be available for public inspection three working days after the meeting except as otherwise specifically provided by this article.
- F. A public body ~~of a city or town with a population of more than two thousand five hundred persons~~ shall:
  1. Within three working days after a meeting, ~~except for subcommittees and advisory committees~~, post on its website, if applicable, either:
    - (a) A statement describing the legal actions taken by the public body ~~of the city or town~~ during the meeting.
    - (b) Any recording of the meeting.
  2. Within two working days following approval of the minutes, post approved minutes of ~~city or town council~~ meetings on its website, if applicable, except as otherwise specifically provided by this article.
  - ~~3. Within ten working days after a subcommittee or advisory committee meeting, post on its website, if applicable, either:~~
    - ~~(a) A statement describing legal action, if any.~~
    - ~~(b) A recording of the meeting.~~
- G. All or any part of a public meeting of a public body may be recorded by any person in attendance by means of a tape recorder or camera or any other means of sonic reproduction, provided that there is no active interference with the conduct of the meeting.
- H. The secretary of state for state public bodies, the city or town clerk for municipal public bodies and the county clerk for all other local public bodies shall conspicuously post open meeting law materials prepared and approved by the attorney general on their website. A person elected or appointed to a public body shall review the open meeting law materials at least one day before the day that person takes office.
- I. A public body ~~may~~ SHALL make an open call to the public during a public meeting, subject to reasonable time, place and manner restrictions, to allow individuals to address the public body on any issue within the jurisdiction of the public body. At the conclusion of an open call to the public, individual members of the public body may respond to criticism made by those who have addressed the public body, may ask staff to review a matter or may ask that a matter be put on a future agenda. However, members of the public body shall not discuss or take legal action on matters raised during an open call to the public unless the matters are properly noticed for discussion and legal action.
